

Abstract Submission Terms and Conditions

By submitting an abstract, you agree to the following:

- All abstracts must be submitted in English and via the online submission site. Other forms of submission e.g. by post, email or fax will NOT be accepted.
- Authors may submit more than one abstract, however only two abstracts will be accepted per presenter
- Oral and poster abstracts MUST include: Introduction/Rationale, Objectives, Method OR Approach, Results OR Practice Implications, Conclusion. Abstracts without this structure will not be accepted.
- Workshop abstracts MUST include: Learning Objectives, Length of time required (1.5 hours for a workshop in the Congress programme; or half or full day for a Pre-Congress workshop), Description of teaching methods, maximum number of participants. Abstracts without this structure will not be accepted.
- The abstract should be as informative as possible.
- The author is responsible for the accuracy of the abstract.
- The acceptance of an abstract does not imply provision of travel, accommodation or registration for the congress, nor any other costs associated with preparation or presentation of the abstract, or any costs associated with attendance at the congress.
- By submitting an abstract/s, you together with any co authors give permission for the abstract to be published in printed materials, website, app and social media formats. Your contact details may also be forwarded to publications interested in your work.
- If the author(s) have any commercial interests or associations that might pose a conflict of interest regarding this submission, they must be declared. If accepted for presentation, the commercial interest or association must be declared on the title slide or the slide immediately following the title slide.
- You confirm that the submission has been approved by all authors.
- You confirm that you will not submit abstracts if previously published elsewhere.
- The author(s) agree(s) to materially confine their presentations to information in the abstract if accepted for presentation; if an author has more than one abstract accepted, each presentation will be materially confined to the information in the abstract selected for the specific session.
- Presenting authors of accepted abstracts must be registered by 21 February 2018 to ensure inclusion of the abstract in congress materials and in order to be scheduled for presentation.
- There is a limit of two presenters per presentation.
- Authors will be notified regarding abstract acceptance by 27 July 2017. Abstracts will be blind reviewed by two peers.
- At least one author must be available to present the abstract if selected for the programme. The authors will immediately notify the WFOT 2018 Congress Office if they are unable to present an abstract or if the presenting author is changed.
